2. Hague Rules Limitation

If the Hague Rules are applicable otherwise than by national law, in determining the flexibility of the Carrier the liability shall in no event exceed 100 Pounds Sterling or the equivalent thereof per package or unit. If the Hague Rules are applicable by national law, the liability of the Carrier shall in no event exceed the limit provided in the applicable national law.

3. Ad Valorem

The Merchant agrees and acknowledges that the Carrier has no knowledge of the value of the Goods, and that higher compensation than that provided herein may not be claimed unless, with the consent of the Carrier, the value of the Goods declared by the Shipper prior to the commencement of the Carriage is stated on this Bill of Lading and extra freight paid, if required. In that case, the amount of the declared value shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

3. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense whatsoever and howsoever arising, caused by one or more of the matters referred to in Clause 8(1) and 8(2), save that, if the loss, damage, liability or expense was caused by a matter referred to in Clause 8 (1) (c), the Merchant shall not be liable to indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof unless the proviso referred to in this Clause applies.

The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any additional expense so incurred.

11. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

1. This Bill of Lading shall be prima facie evidence of receipt by the Carrier from the Shipper in apparent good order and condition, except as otherwise noted, of the total number of Containers, packages or other units specified in the box on the face hereof entitled "Total number of Containers/Packages received by the Carrier".
2. Except as provided in Clause 11(1), no representations made by the Carrier to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the goods, and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.
3. The Merchant agrees that the inclusion of such particulars shall not be regarded as a declaration of value and in no way affects the Carrier's liability under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant further agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences of including such particulars in this Bill of Lading. The Merchant acknowledges that, except when the provisions of Clause 7(3) apply, the value of the goods is unknown to the Carrier.

12. SHIPPER'S/ MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY

All of the Persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfillment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading.

The Shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the goods as set overleaf have been checked by the Shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper, are adequate and correct. The Shipper also warrants that the goods are lawful goods and contain no contraband.

The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, fines and expenses arising or resulting from breaches of the warranties in Clause 12(2) hereof or from any other cause in connection with the goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

All Freight shall be paid without any set-off, counter-claim, deductions or stay of execution before delivery of the Goods.

The person falling within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of Freight and liquidated damages as provided in this Clause.

Any Person engaged by the Merchant to perform forwarding services in respect of the Goods shall be considered to be an exclusive agent of the Merchant for all purposes and any payment of Freight to such Person shall not be considered payment to the Carrier in any event. Failure of such Person to pay any part of the Freight to the Carrier shall be considered a default by the Merchant in the payment of Freight.

14. LIEN

The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums payable to the Carrier under this contract by any of the Persons defined as Merchant in Clause 1 and for general average contributions, to whomsoever due. The Carrier shall also have a Lien against the current Holder on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums due from him to the Carrier under any other contract. In any event any Lien shall extent to cover the cost of recovering the sums due, and for that purpose the Carrier shall have the right to sell the goods by public auction or private treaty without notice to the Merchant.

15. OPTIONAL STOWAGE AND DECK CARGO

The Goods may be packed by the Carrier in Containers and consolidated with other Goods in Containers.

Goods, whether packed or not packed in Containers, may be carried on deck or under deck without notice to the Merchant. The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for any injury, illness, death, delay or destructions howsoever arising. Should the Master in his sole discretion consider that any live animal is likely to cause injuries to any other live animal or any person or property on board, or to cause the vessel to be delayed or impeded in the prosecution of the Carriage, such live animal may be destroyed and thrown overboard without any liability attaching to the Carrier. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all or any extra costs incurred for any reason whatsoever in connection with the Carriage of any live animals.

17. SPECIALIZED CARRIAGE

The Merchant undertakes not to tender for Carriage any Goods which require temperature control, ventilation or any other special attention without previously giving written notice of their nature and particular temperature range to be maintained and/or special attention required. In the case of a refrigerated, ventilated or any other specialized Container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, the merchant further undertakes that the Goods have been properly stowed in the Container and that he has checked that its thermostatic, ventilating or any other special controls have been properly set (or if they have not that he had adjusted them as necessary), before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier. If the above requirements are not complied with, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods, howsoever arising.

The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the Goods arising from any defect of any specialized Container, provided that the Carrier shall, before and at the beginning of the Carriage, exercise due diligence to maintain the Container in an efficient state.

2. Anything done in accordance with Clause 18(1) or any delay arising therefrom shall be deemed to be within the Contractual Carriage and shall not be a deviation.

3. By tendering the Goods for carriage without any written request for Carriage in a specialized Container, or within a specific temperature range, or subject to any special care, or for Carriage otherwise than in a container, the Merchant accepts that the Carriage may properly be undertaken in a general container.

19. MATTERS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE

If at any time the Carriage is or is likely to be any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of any kind (other than inability of the Goods safely or properly to be carried or carried further), and howsoever arising (even though the circumstances giving rise to such hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage existed at the time this contract was entered into or the Goods were received for Carriage), the Carrier (whether or not the Carriage is commenced) may, without prior notice to the Merchant and at the sole discretion of the Carrier, either,

- a) Carry the Goods to the Contracted Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery, whichever is applicable, by an alternative route to that indicated in this Bill of Lading or that which is usual for Goods consigned to that Port of Discharge or Place of delivery. If the Carrier elects to invoke the terms of this Clause 19 (a), then, notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 18 hereof, he shall be entitled to charge such additional Freight as the Carrier may determine; or
- b) Suspend the Carriage of the Goods and store them ashore or afloat upon the terms of this Bill of Lading and endeavor to forward them as soon as possible, but the Carrier makes no representations as to the maximum period of suspension. If the Carrier elects to invoke the terms of the Clause 19 (b) then the Carrier shall be entitled to payment of such additional Freight as the Carrier may determine; or

- c) Abandon the Carriage of the Goods and place the Goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place or port which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon the responsibility of the Freight on the Goods received for Carriage and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs of the Carriage to, and delivery and storage at such place or port.

If the Carrier elects to use an alternative route under Clause 19 (a) or to suspend the Carriage under Clause 19(b) this shall not prejudice his right subsequently to abandon the Carriage.

20. DANGEROUS GOODS

No Goods, which are or may become dangerous, inflammable or damaging (including radioactive materials), or which are or may become liable to damage any property whatsoever, shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without his express consent in writing, and without the container or other covering in which the Goods are to be carried as well as the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with any applicable laws, regulations, or requirements. If any such Goods are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and/or marking, or if in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are or are liable to become of a dangerous, inflammable or damaging nature, they may at any time be destroyed, disposed of, abandoned or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to Freight.

The Merchant undertakes that such Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the risks of Carriage having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws or regulations which may be applicable during the Carriage

Whether or not the Merchant was aware of the nature of the Goods, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all claims, losses, damages or expenses arising in consequence of the Carriage of such Goods.

Nothing contained in this clause shall deprive the Carrier of any of his rights provided for elsewhere.

21. NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY

Any mention herein of parties to be notified of the arrival of the Goods is solely for information of the Carrier, and failure to give such notification shall not involve the Carrier in any liability nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation hereunder.

The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable Tariff (see Clause 2). If the Merchant fails to do so, the Carrier shall be entitled, without notice, to unpack the Goods if packed in containers and/or to store the Goods ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover, at the sole risk of the Merchant. Such storage shall constitute due delivery hereunder, and thereupon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods stored as aforesaid shall wholly cease, and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or Sub – Contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.

If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods within thirty days of delivery becoming due under clause 21(2), or if in the opinion of the Carrier they are likely to deteriorate, decay, become worthless or incur charges whether for storage or otherwise in excess of their value, the Carrier may, without prejudice to any other rights which he may have against the Merchant, without notice and without any responsibilities whatsoever attached to him, sell, destroy or dispose of the Goods and apply any proceeds of sale in reduction of the sums due to the Carrier from the Merchant in respect to this Bill of Lading.

Refusal by the Merchant to take delivery of the Goods in accordance with the terms of this Clause and/or to mitigate any loss or damage thereto shall constitute a waiver by the Merchant to the Carrier of any claim whatsoever relating to the Goods or the Carriage thereof.

In the event of the Carrier agreeing to a request of the Merchant to amend the Place of Delivery stated herein, the terms and conditions to this Bill of Lading shall continue to apply, only to the extent provided by the applicable Tariff, until the Goods are delivered by the Carrier to the Merchant at the amended Place of Delivery. Once the applicable Tariff ceases to provide for the continued application of the Terms and Conditions of the Bill of Lading, then the Carrier shall act as agent only of the Merchant in arranging for delivery of the Goods to the amended Place of Delivery but shall then be under no liability whatsoever for loss, damage or delay to the Goods howsoever arising.

22. FCL MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING

Goods will only be delivered in a container to the Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the contents of the container have been surrendered authorizing delivery to a single Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier may unpack the container and, in respect of Goods for which the Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver these to the Merchant on an LCL basis. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder, but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of LCL Service Charges and any charges appropriate to LCL Goods (as laid down in the Tariff) together with the actual costs incurred for any additional services rendered.

If this is an FCL multiple Bill of Lading (as evidenced by the qualifications of the tally acknowledged overleaf to the effect that it is, "One of. ...part cargoes in the Container"), then the Goods detailed overleaf are said to comprise part of the contents of the Container, indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropriated Goods, or is or becomes mixed or unmarked or unidentifiable, the Holders of the Bills of Lading relating to Goods within the Container shall take delivery thereof (including any damage relating to the Goods within the Container shall take delivery thereof (including any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in his absolute discretion determine, and any such delivery shall constitute due Delivery hereunder.

23. OPTIONAL PORTS

If Goods are accepted for optional ports, said option must be declared to the Carrier's agent at the first of the optional ports of discharge mentioned in this Bill of Lading, not later than two working days before arrival of the vessel at that port. Failing such declaration, the Carrier shall be at liberty to discharge the Goods at any optional ports and such carriage shall be considered full satisfaction of this contract of carriage. Options may only be declared for the total quantity of Goods represented by the optional Bill of Lading.

24. GENERAL AVERAGE AND SALVAGE

In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause whatsoever, due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequences of which, the Carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract or otherwise, the Merchant shall contribute with the Carrier in the general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses, of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. All expenses in connection with a general average or salvage act to avoid damage to the environment shall always be considered general average expenses.

Any general average on a vessel operated by the Carrier shall be adjusted according to the York/Antwerp Rules of 1974 or any subsequent amendments thereto at any port or place and on any currency at the option of the Carrier. Any general average on a vessel not operated by the Carrier (whether a seagoing or inland waterways vessel) shall be adjusted according to the requirements of the operator of the vessel. In either case, the Merchant shall give such cash deposit or other security as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated general average contribution of the Goods before delivery if the Carrier requires, or, if the Carrier does not so require, within three months of the delivery of the Goods, whether or not at the time of delivery the Merchant had notice of the Carrier's lien. The Carrier shall be under no obligation to exercise any lien to general average contribution due to the Merchant.

Conversion into the currency of the adjustment shall be calculated at the rate prevailing on the date of payment for disbursements and on the date of completion of discharge of the vessel for allowances, contributory value etc.

If a salving vessel is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving vessel or vessels belong to strangers.

25. VARIATION OF THE CONTRACT

No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have the power to waive or vary any of the terms of this Bill of Lading, unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorized or ratified in writing by the Carrier.

26. LAW AND JURISDICTION

The contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading shall be governed by Papua New Guinea Law. Any claim against the Carrier arising under this Bill of Lading shall be decided in the National Court of Justice of Papua New Guinea, to whose exclusive jurisdiction the Carrier and the Merchant hereby irrevocably submit.

27. VALIDITY

In the event anything herein contained is inconsistent with any applicable international convention or national law which cannot be departed from by private contract, the provisions hereof shall to the extent of such inconsistency but no further be null and void.

28. BOTH – TO – BLAME COLLISION
